Republic of Poland,

- having regard to Rule 5(2), Rule 6(1) and Rule 9 of its Rules of Procedure,
 - having regard to the report of the Committee on Legal Affairs (A10-0118/2026),
- A. whereas, by letter dated 31 October 2025, the Prosecutor General of the Republic of Poland transmitted a request from the Commander-in-Chief of the Polish Police for the waiver of the immunity of Grzegorz Braun, Member of the European Parliament elected in Poland, in connection with alleged offences that occurred in 2025;
- B. whereas, according to the request, on 10 July 2025, during the commemorations of the 84th anniversary of the massacre of the Jewish population, while standing with a group of people in the middle of a public road in Jedwabne, Grzegorz Braun allegedly obstructed traffic on that road; whereas the alleged action constitutes an offence under Article 90(1) of the Act of 20 May 1971 – Code of Misdemeanours;
- C. whereas, according to the request, on 10 July 2025, in Jedwabne, near the entrance to the Jewish Cemetery, during the commemorations of the 84th anniversary of the massacre of the Jewish population, while standing with a group of people in the middle of a public road, Grzegorz Braun allegedly failed to comply with orders issued by a police officer calling for him to behave in accordance with the law and allow vehicles to pass, thereby deliberately and significantly obstructing the performance of official duties; whereas the alleged action constitutes an offence under Article 65a of the Act of 20 May 1971 – Code of Misdemeanours;
- D. whereas Grzegorz Braun was elected to the European Parliament in the European elections of June 2024 and was, therefore, a Member of the European Parliament at the time of the alleged offences;
- E. whereas the alleged offences do not constitute, and the subsequent request for the waiver of the immunity of Grzegorz Braun is not related to, an opinion expressed or a vote cast by him in the performance of his duties within the meaning of Article 8 of Protocol No 7 on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Union;
- F. whereas Article 9, first paragraph, point (a), of Protocol No 7 on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Union provides that, during the sessions of the European Parliament, its Members are to enjoy, in the territory of their own Member State, the immunities accorded to members of the parliament of their Member State;
- G. whereas, pursuant to Article 105(2) and (5) of the Constitution of the Republic of Poland, from the day the election results are announced until the day their mandate expires, a deputy cannot be subjected to criminal accountability without the consent of the Sejm, and can neither be detained nor arrested without the consent of the Sejm, except in cases where they have been apprehended while committing an offence and in which their detention is necessary to secure the proper course of proceedings;

- H. whereas the purpose of the immunity provided for in Protocol No 7 on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Union is to protect Parliament and its Members from legal proceedings in relation to activities carried out in the performance of parliamentary duties and which cannot be separated from those duties;
 - I. whereas, in accordance with Rule 5(2) of its Rules of Procedure, parliamentary immunity is not a Member's personal privilege of the Member but a guarantee of the independence of Parliament as a whole and of its Members;
 - J. whereas, in this case, Parliament has found no evidence of fumus persecutionis, that is to say it does not appear that the intention underlying the legal proceedings in question is to damage Grzegorz Braun's political activity as a Member of the European Parliament and thus Parliament's independence;
 - K. whereas Parliament cannot assume the role of a court and, in a waiver of immunity procedure, a Member cannot be regarded as a defendant²;
1. decides to waive the immunity of Grzegorz Braun;
 2. instructs its President to forward this decision and the report of its committee responsible immediately to the competent authority of the Republic of Poland and to Grzegorz Braun.
